3 Faery Wicca Magick Spells

Faery Wicca is one of the traditions that draw upon the powers of the Fey or faeries, sprites, elves and gnomes to assist in spell workings. This form of Wicca is believed to have been derived from Celtic and some non-Celtic way of life. Fairies love milk and berries. Also, they like to surround themselves with fresh herbs such as thyme, chamomile, lavender, honeysuckle, pansies, etc.

Here are some Faery Wicca spells for you:

Happy Home Spell

Gather fresh primroses. Make a bouquet of these and leave it on the doorstep or your house's threshold. This will be an invitation to the faeries. While you sleep, they will visit your home and bless your family with good luck, prosperity and happiness.

Protection Spell

Faeries may be summoned whenever we feel that we are in danger. There are many ways in which we can summon faeries. One of the best ways to get protection is by making Good Spirits Oil. Since faeries love botanicals, this is an easy way of attracting them.

For this spell, we need the following:

Essential oil of Anise
Essential oil of Basil
Essential oil of Frankincense
Essential oil of Myrrh
Essential oil of Lavender
Sweet almond oil to use as a base for Good Spirits Oil

Also find some Angelica's root and devil's shoestring. This spell works best if all herbs are organic in origin and works wonders if you grow these in your garden.

Mix all the essential oils to the Sweet almond oil in a bottle. Add the angelica root and devil's shoestring. When you require protection, dress a candle with this Good Spirits Oil and burn to summon caring spirits. You may also warm the oil in a burner to attract these benevolent spirits.

Faery Knot Spells

Romany people believed that faeries create knots on boughs of willow trees. These knots are believed to enhance the power of love. If you find knots on willow trees, make sure you preserve them. To attract new love, sleep with the knot under your pillow.

To preserve love, do the following:

Dress the willow knot with love oils (jasmine, rose, etc). Collect some strands of hair from your head as well as from your lover's. Make a braid of this hair and tie it to the willow knot with red thread. Place all of this in a red silk or satin bag and keep it safe to preserve your love.
