3 Gypsy Love Spells

Family Protection Spell

The Romany people believed in the power of the mountains to protect us. If there is no mountain near your home, you may go to any park or land where you can feel the spiritual energies of the Earth. Take the following items with you:

- 1 cup of milk
- One piece of meat for each person in the family
- Items to make a small fire
- Small charm bags

For the protection of the family, all the members of the family should go together to work this spell. The leader of the family (mother or father) may work the spell or each member can take turns.

Go to a spot where Nature is at its most magickal and accessible state. Offer the milk as libation. Bury the meat for each member of the family as a sacrifice. If you don't want to take meat, you may bury some item of jewelry from each person.

Start a small fire and sit around it. Visualize and chant your petition and desired results. Each member of the family then spits three times into the fire.

Wait until the fire dies out completely. Now collect the ashes and place them in the small bags, one for each member of the family to use as protective charms.

Life Binding Knot Spell

This spell is worked for the newborn baby when s/he is just days old. This knot magick spell is believed to repel illness, bewitchment or the evil eye. This is also believed to protect against soul loss.

Get a black thread, red thread or a used violin string. Light a candle or lamp and holding the baby, murmur your desires and wishes for the baby's future.

Now tie the thread on the baby's hip or if using a violin string, use it to make an amulet or bracelet by continuously knotting it while you focus on your hopes, blessings and desires for the baby's entire life.

Romany Love Spell

For this spell, you will need a used garment from the one you love. It should be one where the sweat has dried into the garment. Burn this sweat soaked part into ashes.

While burning it, add some of your own hair (don't pull it off, just take the ones from your comb or brush). Add these ashes to any food or drink and serve it to your beloved for lasting love and fidelity.
