The 3 Basic Spells All Witch Craft Spell Books Should Have

You are probably familiar with Witchcraft Spells and Magick, and what wonders they are capable of bringing into your life. Maybe you haven't yet decided that this is the path for you yet. Whether you have, or haven't, do me a favor and go through some of the exercises that I have laid out for you in the previous exercises on this site (before you ever attempt any witch craft spells). Prepare your sacred space, go through the meditation, build your altar, etc...

Then I want you to practice some of these beginner spells I am about to give you. I want you to focus on your desires in life, and I want you to get in touch with the power you were born with. Feel the energy all around you – create a bond with it.

And then go along the path that your heart tells you – and don't let anything (or anyone) else tell you what to do.

Trust me, you'll know if the Magick path is right for you. You'll feel it.

Spell #1 (For Beginners): A Simple Love Candle Spell

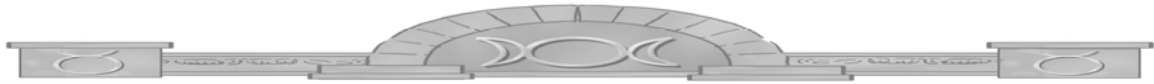

You would normally prepare your altar, internal sacred space, and cast your Magick circle. But if you just want to practice, and aren't sure how to cast a circle yet, this spell is safe enough to do without a circle.

This spell is simple, yet very powerful in bringing love into your life. Follow the suggestions I gave before on focus, meditation, and belief. Think about all the things I have shown you up to this point. When you're heart is ready, begin. (This spell works best at night, at your altar)

What You Will Need:

You will need a pink candle, a selection of love herbs (roses, rosemary, orrisroot, heartsease, and vervain) and essential oils that draw love and relationships, and a rose quartz crystal.

Step #1:

Hollow out a hole in the bottom of the candle, about an inch deep. Save the shavings of wax. Grind the oils and herbs together with your mortar and pestle (or spoon and bowl).

Step #2:

While you do this, charge the herbs by chanting the following:

“True love, come unto me,
Over mountain, land, and sea.
Into these herbs of passion’s Fire,
Send to me my hearts desire.”

Step #3:

Load the magickally charged herbs into the hole in the candle. Melt the wax shavings and seal the hole. Inscribe your magickal intent on the candle with the crystal and anoint the crystal in blessing oil.

Step #4:

Light the candle and send out the energy. Make sure you burn the candle in a deep candle cup because when the flame reaches the herbs they usually ignite and send the energy out quickly.

(NOTE: There are dozens more Love, Money, and protection spells for a variety of situations and desires in the Home Academy. They range from beginner to advanced spells, and you’ll also see step-by-step spell walkthroughs along with DVD demonstrations)

Beginner Spell #2 –Make a Piggy Bank Seed

This extremely simple spell is so easy it is almost funny. Don’t let that fool you though, it works very well to bring wealth into your life. My Grandmother had me do it as a child (it worked so well, I still have the same dollar bill in a piggy bank almost 30 years later).

This spell also works best in the evening, and in the protection of a Magick circle – at your altar.

You will need:

A piggy bank
A dollar bill, play money, or a piece of paper
Clove oil

Green or gold thread

Dab the four corners of the money, play money, or paper with clove oil. Fold the bill three times.

Wrapping towards you, wind the thread around the dollar bill. Tie it with three knots. Place this seed dollar in the piggy bank. The anointed dollar will act as seed money and will draw more money to it (and into your life).

Beginner Spell #3 – Dragon Protection

This spell will create energy of protection through your aura – giving your protection from bad luck, and bad energies.

This is best done after you have cast your Magick circle, in your sacred space around your altar.

You will need one white or purple candle to represent yourself and one black candle for the earth dragon.

Cast your magick circle. Stir the dragon of the element of the north (Earth). Light the earth dragon candle and chant these words:

“Earth dragon strong and true,
Send to me your magick new.
Egg of protection we shall see,
This is my will so mote it be.”

As you chant, envision energy moving from the dragon candle to the one that represents you. See the energy around your candle as green light in the shape of an egg.

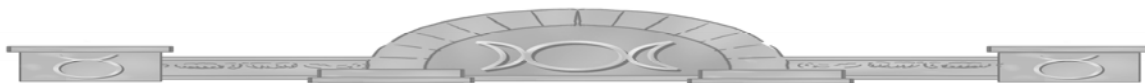

When you feel this has been accomplished, light your candle from the dragon candle. See your magick happening and know you are protected. Snuff out your candle and put it in a safe place. Any time you need additional protection, light this magickally charged candle. Remember to snuff it out (don't blow it out) and put it in a safe place.
